OUR RETURNS POLICY ON RETAIL GARMENTS

At SCODY we have a money back guarantee on our NON SALE retail garments. The item might not be as you expected, or it may not fit as you expected or you may just have changed your mind. No problem - you may return it. Simply contact us to let us know what is being returned and why it is being returned and then send the item back to us. As long as we receive the item unused, with the original tags in place and within 90 days of purchase you can choose a refund or an exchange. For exchanges in Australia please send a stamped self addressed express post pre-paid envelope with the returned goods. For international exchanges you will need to cover the cost of the return. Simply put, all that we ask is that the goods are returned to us in their original condition so that they can be re-sold. If they have been damaged by you, or have been damaged through use, we will not be able to accept their return. Retail items that are on sale may not be returned, unless they are faulty.
